Upon your evening arrival you will be met at the airport by your Knowmad Adventures guide and driver and transferred to your hotel in the heart of the old historic center of Mexico City, steps away from some of the city’s main attractions and surrounded by churches, restaurants and museums. FEB 4 Mexico City: Historic Center & Chapultepec Park & Castle
This morning you will discover Mexico’s Mesoamerican, Colonial and Revolutionary history while exploring the historic center of the capital. What is now the heart of this modern city, was also once the center of the Aztec world, Tenochtitlan. You will start your exploration at the Zocalo, or the city’s main plaza. Here you find the Metropolitan Cathedral built upon the main Aztec temple by the Spanish conquistadors and continue to the National Palace, home to a painted representation of Mexico’s past by muralist Diego Rivera. Also enjoy a private guided tour of National Palace Botanical Garden; its history dates back to pre-Hispanic times, when the New Houses of Moctezuma were located on the premises it now occupies, and where there was a magnificent zoo and a botanical garden.

After lunch at a local restaurant, you will board the bus and continue on to Chapultepec Castle and Park. This beautiful castle is the only royal castle in North America that was actually used as the residence of a sovereign. During the Second Mexican Empire, it was the home of Mexican Emperor Maximilian and his consort, Empress Carlota. Chapultepec Park is double the size of New York’s Central Park and home to a botanical garden, museums, artwork and more. Afterwards, you will be taken back to your accommodations for an evening at leisure.

FEB 5 Mexico City: Axolotls & Chinampas
Today you will get a very early start, ideal for maximum wildlife viewing. Enjoy box breakfasts en route to your visit. Discover mysteries of the ancient Aztec city of Mexico-Tenochtitlan with an early morning nature experience in back channels of Xochimilco. Enjoy bird watching and learn about the intriguing Axolotl salamander, a rare amphibian with unique regeneration abilities that is on the verge of extinction. A highlight today will be your visit to the last remnants of actual floating gardens or “chinampas”. These canals and waterways once made up most of the entire Aztec city of Tenochtitlan. Enjoy a traditional lunch, made with locally produced ingredients at the chinampa, hosted by local cooks from the community. During this experience you’ll learn the importance of these floating gardens, recognized as an Agricultural Heritage System, while supporting the preservation efforts. This fascinating experience is led by an expert naturalist guide, scientists and the founder of REDES (Restauracion Ecologia Y Desarrollo), a non-profit association that actively works on conservation programs and projects to protect the area’s ecosystem and save the endangered Axolotl. Learn all about this incredible area, that is actually part of Mexico City, and discover a hidden oasis that brings life to the incredible flora and fauna in this amazing metropolis. After this visit and lunch, you will be taken back to your hotel for the afternoon at leisure. Continue to explore the areas around your hotel, or relax to gear up for a special evening.
You will be picked up in the early evening to be taken on a once in a lifetime experience to explore The National Anthropology Museum on a private and off-hours tour. This museum showcases fascinating artifacts from various cultures that once thrived in Mesoamerica and is the most visited museum in Mexico. Designed and built by architect Pedro Ramirez Vasquez in 1964, it is very important for its architectural design as well as the vast array of artifacts that it houses. Your expert guide will lead you on an exploration of the museum for approximately 1.5 hours, taking you on a journey through the many histories and cultures of Mesoamerica. At the conclusion of your private visit to the museum you will be driven back to your hotel.

FEB 7 El Rosario Butterfly Sanctuary
This morning you will depart and head to El Rosario Butterfly Sanctuary. Every winter, millions and perhaps more than a billion monarch butterflies arrive in the forests of Mexico. Although it is unclear how these magnificent creatures find their way to unseen, somehow favored, patches of rural Mexico, these spectacular gatherings have generated tremendous interest from ecologists, naturalists, and conservationists the world over. Upon arrival at El Rosario, you will leave the vehicle behind for a walk along a groomed but, at times, steep trail into the fir tree forest favored by the butterflies. The walk is approximately 2.5 to 3 hours round trip. Please note that depending on where the butterflies are, the walk can be longer or shorter. For those who may struggle with the hike, there are horses available for assistance for additional cost (approximately $10-$15 usd). The sun warms and lights their wings to reward visitors with a unique and remarkable display of light and color. Your expert guide will discuss ecology, natural history, and conservation issues in the sanctuary. To maximize your time with the butterflies, you will have a box lunch today to enjoy in nature.

- B, Box L - Hotel Rancho San Cayetano or similar

FEB 8 Sierra Chincua Sanctuary
This morning you will be picked up to visit another butterfly sanctuary. After El Rosario, Sierra Chincua is the second most visited butterfly sanctuary and the most accessible of all of the colonies. Most of the ascent is done in car on a road that passes through the scenic village of Angangeo. The trail leading to the butterflies is relatively level, paved in white gravel, and a 30-minute to 1-hour walk each way. The trees here are almost all oyamel fir trees, making for uniformly dark green vistas. You will again have a box lunch today to maximize your time at the sanctuary.

- B, Box L - Hotel Rancho San Cayetano or similar
FEB 9 Zitacuaro - Mexico City - Oaxaca
Today you will depart early and be driven to the Mexico City airport, for your short flight onward to Oaxaca. Upon arrival in Oaxaca you will meet your guide and be taken to your accommodation in the historical center of Oaxaca. After time to check-in and refresh you will head out on an evening 1-hour private tour of the Santo Domingo cathedral and its Ethnobotanical Garden. Santo Domingo is the most beautiful church in the city and among the nicest in the entire country. The original construction dates to 1570, and since then has undergone various renovations. Here you will also visit Oaxaca’s Ethnobotanical Garden, designed by Francisco Toledo and home to the most extensive and complete collections of Cacti and Agaves from the State of Oaxaca. After your tour, you’ll head out on a local food tour, starting at a “hole in the wall” Mezcaleria where you’ll learn about the traditional drink made from agave plants in the region and then visit a local favorite spot for grilled Oaxacan Tlayuda.
  - B, D – Grand Fiesta Americana Oaxaca or similar

FEB 10 Oaxaca: Monte Alban, Tule & Teotitlán
This morning you will be met at your hotel by your guide and head just outside of the city on a drive to the fascinating archaeological site, Monte Alban. Located in the center of the Oaxacan Valley on a hilltop, Monte Alban is an impressive site with remarkable panoramas of the valley. It was the capital city of the Zapotec nation, and one of the first and most populated Meso-American cities during its peak, exerting control over the communities in the valley and surrounding mountains. Explore the site alongside your expert guide, and discover what is known about Monte Alban, and what still remains a mystery. After this visit, you will head further outside of town for a visit to the small artisan villages outside of Oaxaca City., you arrive to Teotitlán Del Valle, where Zapotec traditions live on in contemporary form within woven handmade crafts. Visit a Zapotec family home to see the process of how traditional woven rugs are made. Many still use the traditional techniques of carding and spinning their own wool, then dying it with natural colours and finally weaving on solid-wood looms. Enjoy a typical lunch as a special guest while learning the secrets of authentic Oaxacan cuisine. Both Gourmet Magazine and The New York Times have praised Oaxacan Cuisine as the most authentic food in Mexico. Heading back towards the city after your visit, you will stop en route to see Santa María del Tule, a small town made famous by the Arbol del Tule. This ancient tree is between 2,000-3,000 years old and has a diameter of 40 feet, making it one of the world’s largest trees and one of the oldest living species on earth. Afterwards, head back to your hotel for an evening at leisure.
  - B, L – Grand Fiesta Americana Oaxaca or similar

FEB 11 Oaxaca: Mezcal Production and Tasting
During this full-day experience you will journey through the valley of Oaxaca to 3 pueblos, which make premium Mezcal at simple yet authentic distilleries. Far from the tourist track, the mezcalters in San Dionisio Ocotpec, San Baltazar Chichicapam and Santa Catarina Minas produce quality mezcal using varied distillation methods. Visiting the producers in each town, you will learn how donkey-power is still used in the fermentation process and learn about the differences between distillation using the traditional copper still and the pre-Columbian clay still. Upon tasting a variety of mezcal, you will appreciate the wide-ranging and distinct tastes of the spirit that can depend so much on the agave used and how it is distilled. Lunch will be included at a local restaurant en route. After your full day, head back to the hotel for an evening at leisure.
  - B, L – Grand Fiesta Americana Oaxaca or similar

FEB 12 Oaxaca - USA
This morning you will be picked up and taken to the airport for your onward flight home.

IMPORTANT NOTES:

- FITNESS LEVEL REQUIRED FOR TRIP: The butterfly reserve altitudes vary from 8,000 to 10,500 ft above sea level and these encounters require the ability to walk for more than an hour along a steep incline that can be considered strenuous. Distances between the parking spaces to the first butterflies may vary from 30 minutes to 2 hours; this will depend on where the butterflies are located. There will be horses or mules available if necessary for those who need assistance (these cannot take you all the way up, but approximately two-thirds of the way). Travelers partaking in this trip should be prepared and able to walk over an hour (with stops to rest) at an incline.
